MATINEE MEET TOO EARLY FOR HORSES

Two Events on United Hunts Programme Turn Out Only

SYOSSET BEATS HIBLER

They Have It Out Alone in the Queens Steeplechase at Belmont Terminal.

By DANIEL.

Back in the days which we are pleased to refer to as both good and old at me Park and Saratoga they used have occasional match days, on which several two horse contests which several two horse contests for private wagers and sweepstakes decided many a moot question of speed and endurance. Memories of those days came back to the oldest of the old timers who attended the closing session of the fall meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association at the Belmont Park Racing events had a fairly liberal entry.

but when it came to sending their horses to the post many of the leading mem-bers registered a veto. This was par-ticularly hard to understand, in view of ticularly hard to understand, in view of the fact that the barns at Belmont Park, right next door, were chock full of animals straining to get into action. Twenty horses in a programme of six races is not a very flattering showing and racegoers hope that the United Hunts will take measures to preclude a MAMAUX'S SINGLE etition of the match day. It was a meeting out of the ordinary several ways. In the first place it several ways. In the first place I ing—an hour that brought out only the most hardy and enthusiastice lovers of the thoroughbred and the turi. The fessionals," who go to races just to "professionals," who go to races just to wager on them, were conspicuous by their absence. And well for them that they stayed away, for as a medium for betting the programme was a rank failure. Society was well represented in spite of the hour and the fact tenta a big afternoon was scheduled at Halmont Park. Most of the onlookers hand. Robby and the other Dodgers hand. Robby and the other Dodgers hand. Robby the great spite the great spite the spite spite into the air and made remained over to see the Realization shied their gloves into the air and made quite a fuss over the decision, but it

Syosset Still Reliable.

The scheduled feature was the Queen Brooklyn tied in the seventh when Krueger cracked a double to left. Baird ran for him and Griffith, batting for Steeplechase Handicap, at two and a half miles. Seven horses had been named, but when the blue pencil had coased operations only two were left—Mra Payne Whitney's reliable Syosset Mrs. Payne Whitney's reliable Syossets and F. Ambrose Clark's Hibler. Being the better horse, Syosset won. But Vincent Powers, who rode, the son of Miraine gave Syosset's adherents some mighty anxious moments. Powers permitted Franklyn on Hibler to make the pace almost all the way. The first time around it was Hibler by fifteen With two strikes on him, Al drove a single through it was foul. lengths and everybody wondered what was keeping Syosset back. Hibler was fencing cleaner than the favorite, and it really did look as if Mrs. Whitney's standby was in for a beating.

Back into the woods it was the favorite and single through the box, sending in Keney with the winning run. The score:

been the Stayer's Handicap, which had been reduced to a mile and a half. There were only four entries, but Musical Honours, having started in a previous event, was scratched, leaving just enough contestants to take care of all parts of the purse. J. F. Flanagan, Jr.'s Lytte, a well set up son of Leonid, having gained some reputation as a stayer on the grass, was made the favorite at 7 to 20, though it was conceded that Prince Hal 2d, owned by the mythical "Mr. Bayard." was conceded to have considerable speed and the beet rider in siderable speed and the best rider in race in the person of Fred Alpers. was a contest for gentlemen riders. Alpers gave prince Hal 2d a splendid ride and in office of the all too apparent superiority of Lytle the Prince was only half a length behind the winner at the finish. mphion was twenty lengths behind.
The first race, the Hollis, at six furngs, for two-year-olds, would have been fine race had some of the stars entered gone to the post, but eight were scratched, leaving "Mr. Bayard's" Walk the Plank, J. E. Widener's Weary, Mrs. W. A. Prime's Sea Serpent and the Oak Ridge Stable's Shendandoab to find the Cak the Plank, J. E. Widener's Weary, Mrs. W. A. Prime's Sea Serpent and the Oak Ridge Stable's Shendandoah to fight it out for the puras.

For some unknown reason Shenandoah was made the favorite, with Walk the Plank a shade the less fancied. Weary disregarded her name and put up a rather spry move, leading almost right up to the front door of the Judge's stand. But Walk the Plank had more in reserve and under a good ride by Johnston won by half a length in the first few strides. Weary was only half a length in front of Sea Serpent, with Shenandoah last puffing like an old Eric lecomotive from the exercise of carrying 122 pounds over that nasty hill.

Vague led almost all the way and faished a length in front of Jim Dinney, while Crumpsall beat Sunnyland eight lengths for third money. Il Terestic and

The Trial Sizepiechase for three-yearolds at two miles, was a match between M. L Schwartz's Delaware and the Hun-tington Valley Farm's Indian Desert Indian Desert was overmatched and out-classed, for Delaware rejoyed only a light workout in winning by twenty lengths. Indian Desert just did manage to stagger home. The Lynbrook Steeplechase, at two r the older jumpers, was won by rose Clark's Robin Goodfellow, a to 3 favorite. The son of Goodrich had only half a length to spare at the finish, for J. F. Flanagan, Jr.'s Whist 2d made 1 m step some. Mrs. W. A. Prime's Flight Captain was last.

GIANTS BUY SHORTSTOP.

After Club's Pitcher. The Giants purchased Shortstop Bates of the Pittsfield champions of the New Ergiand League yesterday. It also was reported that the Giants were negotiating with Pittsfield for the purchase of Garry Fortune, the club's pitching star, and Devine.

The Giants deny that they are negotiating for Fortune. Nevertheless it would not be surprising to see the local club land this crack youngster.

EALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—Hammering the offerings of Zellars and Kingston, Balti-more experienced little trouble in registering a 10 to 1 victory to-day over Jer-sey City. The Orioles collected twenty-two hits, while Frank held the opposition to eight hits.

Zellars was nicked for seven hits and five runs before he was replaced by Kingston in the fourth. After this he was scored upon only once, good fielding pulling him out of numerous tight places.

Oddly enough Chicago outhit Cleveland by fourteen hits to eleven, but the Indians made theirs at the right time. The White Sox hit Jim Bagby pretty justily, but his big lead enabled him to float along with the tide and take things easy. When he had to retire a things easy. When he had to relife a things easy. The shipbuilders will tackle the Treat 'em Roughs in a double header. The Fletchers will have the Kelleher brothers on the mound and Kritchell behind the bat. Joe Wagner, former Giant, and Jack Warhop, former Yankee, are two other former major leaguers in the Fletcher lineup. But the cheers for the decision was shortlived, for the crowd soon realized that Mr. Coe had been treated unjustly, and even those who had profited by the verdict sympathized with Mr. Coe.

To many racegoers the victories of Cleopatra and Over There were re-versals. Mr. Karrick's explanation of their former races were:
"Over There came out of his last r on him. That compelled me to rush his training and when he met Thunderclap last week he was still a bit sore and a trifle short. That Tace did him a lot since then he has worked better than ever for me. He is not a sound horse and the hard race of to-day will compel me to throw him out of training. To-day I raced him in new heavy steel shoes which held his bad feet like a vise, and he ran much better than he did when I ran him in smooth nites." did when I ran him in smooth plates." Explaining Cleopatra's defeat by Dom-inique last week, he said: "Cleopatra is a slow breaker and an ungainly filly and unless she is pulled up at the start and steadled down her stride is all mixed and she fails to show her best. Against Dominique she didn't get a chance to settle down. He has a tremendous burst of speed, and coming down that straight course he fairly files during the only

At six furlongs or more Cleopatra will do to Dominique what she will do to any other colt or filly except Man o'

The steeplechase was the worst race of its kind seen here in many a day. So badly did Rowan ride Reddest and Rvers handle J. E. Widener's Skibbereer that even the casual racegoers were shocked. All through the run through the homestretch it seemed as if both Rowan and Byers were trying their mightlest to make Rhomb win. They did not ride even as well as amateurs. and it was the general opinion that both boys should have been punished. At the end of the journey Rhomb was only a nose in front of Skibbereen, which was neck ahead of Reddest. Withe anything like a good ride Reddest and Skibbereen would have administered a decisive beating to the winner.

As soon as the jockeys weighed out the stewards held an investigation. They haled Rowan and Byers before them and then sent for James Boden, J. H. Lewis and Lewis Garth, trainers of Reddest, Skibbereen and Rhomb, respectively. They were cross-examined and after some deliberation it was an-nounced that all future entries from Mr. Boden would be refused at the meeting. Boden would be refused at the meeting, that Rowan had been suspended for the meeting and that their cases would be referred to the Jockey Club, Mr. Boden was asked what instruc-tions he had given his jockey. He said:

"Reddest is an erratic fellow and will not run unless he has company. I there of Skibbereen and not to pay any atten tion to Rhomb until the homestretch ps and I did not want Rhomb to hit my horse and knock him out of his stride. The lad followed my instructions
